BHUTAN

" BELIEVE IN A PLACE – AND PACE
– UNLIKE ANY OTHER "

BHUTAN TOURISM

Perfect for curious travellers of all walks. In Bhutan, there's a pace – and a place – for everyone.

A rich tapestry of ethnicities, all proudly Bhutanese. Proud of their heritage and building a thriving future.

The land of the Thunder Dragon

Drukyl, as Bhutan is known here, is a land of arresting contrasts – and uncommon harmony. It's a place where people can find peace and do business, experience living traditions and discover wilderness teeming with life.

Bhutan offers thrillingly contrasting experiences for body and soul, often simultaneously. Strenuous climbs or sound healing, white-water rafting or hot-stone bathing, mountain biking or meditation – the choices are as varied as the terrain, and as certain to salve spirits and promote relaxation.

Alongside culture-packed cities, rural life quietly unfolds.

The streets of Thimphu, Paro and Phuentsholing bustle with locals working and socialising, and guests exploring markets and museums. Meanwhile, in tranquil valleys and on vertiginous hillsides, people churn milk into butter, gather wild greens from the forest, and chat over suja, or butter tea.
